Dear Magistrate Judge Boyle:

We are counsel for Defendant, Mr. Richard Wolfe in the above-referenced matter and are writing to ask for your Honor's assistance.

At this time, the parties have not been able to resolve certain issues pertaining to a stipulated protective order that would be acceptable to both sides. As such and in attempt to move discovery and this matter forward, we are requesting Your Honor's intervention with regard to the same and would respectfully request a telephone conference to resolve the outstanding issues at Your Honor's convenience.

We note that the schedule currently has set a status conference by telephone for October 20, 2005 at 1:30pm.

If you have any questions or need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.
